Reader's Opinions

This book collects four Issues of Secret Origins, examining the origins of DC Comics characters in the New 52 universe. This first volume contains well-known characters such as Batman and Superman as well as the lesser lights of the DC Universe and even a villain. The book surprised me by being able to wring a bit of...

To be up-front, this is most definitely for beginning DC readers. All the fans are already well-versed in almost all of these origin stories. So from that perspective, the idea of putting all these origins in an easy-to-read volume is pretty cool. The art varied but was generally good and the stories were brief. It's a good comic for...
