Reader's Opinions

I hated this book. I found the meek and passive protagonist to be completely unlike every doctor I've ever known and worked with, so much so that I disrespected her. The story itself was so poorly explained, all we read are...

This is highly moral and uncomfortable novel, drawing the readers attention to the necessary but messy work wed rather keep out of mind. Nancy, a surgeon and willing practitioner of societys dirty work, seems as bewildered as anyone by her sudden stagnation in...
