

ANOXIC ZONE

Towards the end of the first century of the second millennium, the true end of the Industrial age, a working man with skills was rare. And so, being one was vital. Having the unfortunate opportunity to be alive at this time, when the infrastructure of the previous age was falling apart, operatives were much needed. Chosen for their aptitude, whether skilled in labor or in the sciences, these men were brought back to life again and again to become reuseables for Megacorp. Society at large never...

Reader's Opinions

3.5 stars really....the dialogue was strangely stilted which was hard for me to get past at first....but the momentum of this book is awesome! There is so much action and the narrative itself is fantastic with some beautifully crafted sentences.....it totally makes up for...

Imagine the Earth in ruins and the oceans filled with treasures waiting to be found. The remains of the once-industrial age, hundreds and thousands of feet down in the sea; these were the new riches of the planet now. This is a forward looking...
