Peek Inside the Book

Here is what I believe is still the truth of our country, one that we do not acknowledge enough: do not underestimate the strides we have made. South Africa today is a very different country to the one we entered in 1994. It will...

Reader's Opinions

Provocative honest and desperately hopeful. Well written analytical & an important piece of work. This was a good book & one that I will re-read many times this year.

Well written, opinionated! A must read for any one who cares about South Africa, its people, the current state of affairs and its future1
