

KEPT

Life hasn't quite worked out how Arielle Lockley planned. Becoming the next Coco Chanel, not shopping at Chanel, was always her childhood dream but somehow she's ended up as a kept woman, living the jet set lifestyle with boyfriend Piers. When the recession hits, it's not just the economy that takes a tumble. Broke and homeless with zero job prospects, can Arielle find her way again in time or will she always have to be a kept...

Peek Inside the Book

Piers was tall, dark and handsome that old chestnut and you could see he was well-defined underneath his clothes, despite his appalling taste in the clothes themselves. Still, he made appalling look appealing. Elle Field, Kept //

Ironically, as I think this, the Tube pulls into Earls Court where I need to switch lines for Sloane Square. Maybe I'm destined to be an Earls Court girl instead? Elle Field, Kept //

Reader's Opinions

Kept is a very current, chick lit debut novel by Elle Field. It's the story of Arielle and in a nutshell her journey of growing up and self discovery. Arielle tells us her story in a series of flashbacks mixed in with details of her current predicaments. Her biggest problem being how her past has defined her future until she decides...

This is Elle's debut novel and first in the Arielle Lockley series, the second book in the series being due for release shortly. Arielle Lockley is a privileged woman. Raised by loving parents, well-educated and living a life of luxury as the pampered girlfriend of a rich man. However, there is a little voice in the back of her
