

A DUTY TO THE DEAD

A spellbinding companion to Charles Todd's New York Times Notable, Barry Award-winning, Edgar, Dilys, Anthony, and John Creasy Awards-nominated Ian Rutledge novels, A Duty to the Dead introduces readers to an unforgettable new protagonist Bess Crawford, courageous World War I nurse and determined investigator. Once again the New York Times bestselling author brilliantly evokes post-Great War Europe, casting an indomitable heroine into a simmering cauldron...

Peek Inside the Book

That's the point of working with one's hands, you see. It gives the mind something else to do besides worry. Charles Todd, A Duty To The Dead //

Reader's Opinions

This is the first of The second series by Charles Todd featuring a WWI nurse, Bess Crawford. She works in various war theaters nursing soldiers wounded in battle. One such soldier, on realizing he is...
