Reader's Opinions

In this 1941 thriller, series hero John Appleby is returning to London from the Sunburnt Country by ocean liner with a zany bunch of passengers. After the liner is torpedoed, the plucky band washes...

The best Innes is whimsical, even fantastical, but here he goes well over the top and it doesn't help that The Guvnor (John Appleby) appears to get the horn on for one of his fellow castaways. A shame - it could have been a classic but ends up just blooming silly.
