

THE DEATHS

Four families live in a beautiful stretch of English countryside in magnificent houses. They leave only to commute first-class to London for meetings, deals and theatre outings, or on family holidays to winter sun or half-term skiing. But the money is running out in Britain and keeping up appearances isn't easy. As tensions and relationships develop within this group of...

Reader's Opinions

I finished the book this afternoon and can't stop thinking about it. At times I was frustrated by the slow pace of the book and the attention to every detail of their lives. However, as the plot develops it does become clear as to how important all these details are. I feel very sad because, in the end, I had become to like all the...
