Peek Inside the Book

When you stopped to think about it, he reflected, there werent many things in life one truly needed. To want too much was worse than greed: it was stupiditya waste of precious time and effort. The Tad Williams, The Dragonbone Chair: Memory, Sorrow & Thorn Book 1 //

Reader's Opinions

This is one of my all-time favorite series and I reread it almost every year. That being said, I can understand why many people have given it negative reviews. There are two things that are cited most often 1) the slow start and 2)that there is nothing new...

Dear Tad Williams,I cannot thank you enough for writing a book...well, set of books...that I can read as a full-on grown-up and still enjoy as much as I did when I was an angsty teenager.It has hurtful to find so many of my favorite when-I-was-young reads (looking at you, Shannara and DragonLance) aren't actually good at all and that...
