Reader's Opinions

SO much better than the tv series!! I read this books in high school and once you start one you end up chowing through the whole series wanting more. There is lots of different stories, many very sad, some funny though and...

The first in a series on Australian true crime14 September 2013 I picked up this book from the former Borders store in Adelaide after reading the authors' other book on the Melbourne Gangland Killings Leadbelly and I wanted to see what their other true crime writings were like. This is the first in a series of books (though I can't...
