

THE POEM FACTORY

THE POEM FACTORY is where you end up when the world no longer wants you. These are poems set in the corners of America seldom mentioned in poetry. Waitresses and strippers, truck drivers and store managers, outsider poets and welders fill the pages...

Reader's Opinions

Another scuff-knuckled, blue-collar poetic treatise from Newman. These poems come from hard years and limited choices, and the stripped-down, naked lines are diamond-hard and haunting. This is a world of closing factories, shit-jobs, of doing what it takes to make ends meet. And nestled down in the struggle, gorgeous pops of sadness...
