Reader's Opinions

Except for a couple of vulgarities this is more a pre-teen than YA with a great deal of spelling errors (that could be the Kindle's fault). A ballerina who gets seriously ill, a champion-to-be horse that takes, yes, a fall mixed with a sort of love story...

I was very excited to win this book from Goodreads giveaways. I am surrounded by horse people, though I know very little about horses and have only met horses a couple of times. I also work for a therapist who works on horses every weekend. Therefore,I am very interested in horses and healing.This book should have...
