Reader's Opinions

I really enjoyed this book. It started out a little predictable but I knew there was somewhere unique it was going and it definitely took me there. I enjoyed Teleworld even more than this one so keep reading!

I enjoyed this first installment. I found the story to be compelling, the character development good and the overall concept really intriguing. It got a bit slow in the middle there, and I was hoping it wasn't going to turn into another YA romance novel, but as the love between Wen and Gabe is integral to the story, it was worth the...
