

CHARLIE ON THE ROCKS

Charlotte Daniels is certain her best days are behind her. Her marriage is stale, she has a past she can't let go of, and her once budding writing career is about to nosedive. That is until she's introduced to Connor Owens, a man who isn't afraid to take what he wants. And after meeting Charlotte, what he wants... is her. Willing to do almost anything to save her career, including put up with his oversized ego and sharp mouth, Charlotte accepts an offer from Connor to serve as...

Reader's Opinions

I will preface this review by stating that I don't normally read this genre of book--real life fiction. Overall, this is a very strong first novel. The main character, Charlotte (Charlie), is well developed. I was able to identify with her daydreaming and hope for a better life, but not quite sure how to attain...
