Peek Inside the Book

Saving and pinching to get married, you're losing the best time of your life. Muriel Spark, The Ballad of Peckham Rye //

Reader's Opinions

It wouldnt have happened if Dougal Douglas hadnt come here.The Ballad of Peckham Rye (1960) is a quite unusual novel, comparable with John Updikes more infamous The Witches of Eastwick (1984). However, Dougal Douglas is more intriguing than Updikes devil, Daryl Van Horne, not least because he crosses the line between being a...
