Reader's Opinions

If I could rate less than 1 star, I would. The only thing this short story has going for it is the plot idea. I can potentially see this idea making a good story. However, it is poorly written with grammatical...

The author has the sense of adventure and the tools that are used appropriately to grab and pull the reader's attention for each twist of the story, I strongly recommend the book for those who are searching for amusement stories and thrills.
