Reader's Opinions

Wow! I really enjoyed this book. It's apparently the fourth in the Medicus series, but this is the first one I've read. I will now go back and read the first three. The book's main character is a Roman doctor, recently discharged from...

To me this one was really a letdown in the series, which is sad because I spent more on this one than I really wanted to, and it was the shortest installment. Ruso and Tilla have returned to Britannia where Valens has promised to find Ruso a job. When Ruso arrives, however, he learns the job is as an investigator rather than a doctor....
