Reader's Opinions

I love Supergirl, and the first 3 volumes of this run were great. It seems like each volume that's coming out now gets more and more scattered. I can't even understand the story line anymore if I'm not also getting a bunch of other comics to fill in what's happening with the story. The issues jump around and then it's just left out...

This volume is a little all over the place, because it ties into two other comics as well as telling its own story, but for once the majority of the correct issues are collected here so it's quite a cohesive read overall. We begin with a three part story that pits Supergirl against the new...
