Peek Inside the Book

I took another slug of my coffeelike most of my old boyfriends, it was strong, dark, Italian and slightly bitter. . . Rosie Genova, Murder and Marinara //

I pointed, still unable to utter a word. Tim looked down at the spectacle behind the shed, his face swiftly draining of color. He gripped my arm with a clammy hand. And then he did something I'd been waiting half my life to see: he dropped into a dead swoon at my feet. Rosie Genova, Murder and Marinara //
