

FIRST LOVE

Growing up, Krister Foss had a hazy awareness of being gay. Now a conscript in the same army garrison with Jens Petri, Krister has fallen head over heels in love – the first true love for both he and Jens. Having nowhere to express their feelings, they turn an old abandoned smokehouse into their secret love nest. After Jens has an accident, Krister finagles a false day...

Reader's Opinions

First Love

Good, but...There's something just a bit off with this story, but it's difficult to pinpoint the specific issues. It starts out slow, heavy with details and a few (I thought) unnecessary flashbacks, but the pace picks up about a third of the way in, and the relationship between Jens...
