Reader's Opinions

Que buen libro. Creo que todos hemos conocido un Fante Bukowski alguna vez.

A perfectly realized little book about a wannabe writer (the title character) who in spite of his complete lack of talent, craves fame and fortune. We've all met variations of Fante in real life, and it's always super-cringe-y. Fante possesses the unique pathos of the chronically self-deluded, but Sciver wisely accentuates laughs above...
