Peek Inside the Book

Her mother said that three great powers kept the universe going. The first and the strongest was God. Each of the two additional powers was as strong as the other: love and imagination. OF the three, God and love were always good. Imagination, however, could be good or bad. Mozart imagined great music into existence. Hitler imagined death camps and built them. Imagination was so powerful...

Reader's Opinions

DNF at 50%I am not one to give up on a book easily. I will almost always finish reading it, even if I don't particularly like it. But I just couldn't do it this time.I didn't feel like there was much substance to this at all. I wasn't really attached to the characters, and the story felt...
