Reader's Opinions

This was an interesting romance. It's been a long time since I read this novel, but I do remember several scenes vividly. What's unique about Stolen is the setting. This is probably the only romance I have read that takes place in The New World - French Canada. I really did love the two main characters and thought both were beautifully...

2.5 stars.It's a case of mistaken identity.(view spoiler)[ The last surviving McLeod, Drummond intends to kill the much loved mistress of the Duke of Cumberland, the man who ordered the mass slaughter of Scots at Culloden (including Drummonds older brother) but at the last minute he cannot bring himself to do it and since theres a price...
