Reader's Opinions

SpoilersRubbish The characters were flat, the story dragged, the romance was weak and unconvincing, and the ending wasn't even an ending.-I intensely disliked April, she was a boring-bratty-needy-Mary-Sue-loser. What I despised most about her were her double standards, she was disgusted and rather violent towards Davina when she found...

SIIIIIGH!!! Well this book is better than the first 2. That's for sure! Although it's still a little disappointing. April is still a complete airhead and for being this girl who's supposed to be a badass, she really is a complete sissy. The positive about this book is it held my attention until the very...
