Reader's Opinions

Altaf Tyrewala's bestselling debut novel is a brilliant collective first person account of the pulsating metropolis Mumbai. The fascinatingly crafted, racy monologues add a sense of immediacy and unpredictability. the book is at once witty, surreal and dark, giving out a sense of larger forces at work. With the characters grappling...

Altaf Tyrewala weaves a series of interlocking stories into a tapestry of Mumbai. A majority of the characters involved are Muslim and there are some nice insights into religious tension in...
