Reader's Opinions

4.5 starsI can't believe I forgot about this book! Granted I read it over 5 years ago, but when I saw a friend had recently reviewed it, it all came flooding back.I remember after I read it, it was all I could think about...

Mary Beth Latham lived at home with her husband Glen, eldest child Ruby and twins Max and Alex, and while life was normal the fact that three teenagers lived under their roof proved on a day by day basis that things were far from normal. Mary Beth was devoted to her family she also ran a business as a landscape gardener, while Glen...
