Reader's Opinions

Great stories to read aloud or on your own. I have the privilege to know the author and reading the book was like hanging out with her past, present and future selves all at once. I recommend it !

As I said in my review in ForeWord Magazine, this fine collection of stories takes on Alice Munro territory not just in the geographical setting of Canada, but also in the thematic sense of secrets rattling around like something loose on a car. But with a little more kink. And more edge. One of the pleasures of High-Water Mark is the...
