Reader's Opinions

Fourth book in the Alien Species Intervention #6609, which spans a couple of centuries from the early 20th century into a vividly-imagined and traumatic future. In this book, the world faces annihilation as nuclear war wreaks near-total destruction. Humans are no longer the dominant species, and survival is the only game in town. We...

Hive is the fourth book in the species intervention series and this one throws together some characters we have previously been introduced to and loved along the way. In line with the other books, this also has...
