Reader's Opinions

A fun summer book. Some parts are definitely better than others. The book just stops after one of its less entertaining stories without any summary or conclusion.

Fakes & Forgeries: The True Crime Stories of History's Greatest Deceptions: The Criminals. the Scams, and the Victims by Brian Innes (Amber Books Ltd. - a Reader's Digest Book 2005)(364.163) is an interesting summary of stories about forgeries in art, currency, and documents and the folks who create them. My rating: 5.5/10, finished...
