Reader's Opinions

This weekend was filled with earl grey tea and Nikolski by Nicolas Dickner. If youre from Canada and you listen to CBC, you might already know that this book was a contender on CBCs literary competition called Canada Reads. Basically, its a battle of the books and each day one of the five books get kicked off and Nicolas Dickner made...

Every character in this light comedy-satire seems to be fishing for something, although not necessarily fish or even in water. Yet, most places where the action takes place are somehow located on islands: Montreal Island, Stevenson Island, and an island off the Venezuelan coast. Finally, and not to be overlooked the "magnetic north"...
