

FIRE AT TWILIGHT

Grace is a fixer. She's good at it, too. In her acupuncture practice, she fixes the community of Darling Bay, and in her personal life, she's rescued her sister too many times to count. Her love life, though . . . Grace doesn't think she needs help, especially not from a man whose very nickname is unhealthy. Tox Ellis is the hazmat expert at the Darling Bay Fire Department, and he knows about harmful substances. He knows what gases to keep apart to prevent explosions. Why,...

Peek Inside the Book

Three scoops in his bowl, one coffee, one peanut butter, one chocolate. Hed added about four pounds of hot fudge and a metric ton of caramel, just to even the score. Hank had taken one look at it and said, Youre an idiot. You are. It had been the only appropriate answer, really....

It tastes amazing. I wonder how we could make it a little more heart-healthy? Samantha laughed and untied her apron. I can tell you exactly substitute spinach and quinoa for all the ingredients, and then curl up in a ball and weep from hunger pains. Lila Ashe, Fire at...

Reader's Opinions

Blaze was a light fast-paced read. I loved the characters and the tension between them. I almost read it all in one sitting, but it was hard to put down. Great read!
