Reader's Opinions

A beautiful biography and art book. The text gives a clear and organized timeline of Ted Harrison's life, accompanied by examples of his art and photographs. I love that the book includes so many examples of his art. The text includes questions about the paintings, which gives the book...

A nice introduction to a Canadian artist. I'd never seen this artist's work so I walked away from this book very impressed. The text is informative and provides the basic backdrop and formative influences behind the artist's unique vision. The pacing really works for this book as readers see the progression of Harrison's style over...
