

CAT'S EYE

Cat's Eye is the story of Elaine Risley, a controversial painter who returns to Toronto, the city of her youth, for a retrospective of her art. Engulfed by vivid images of the past, she reminisces about a trio of girls who initiated her into the fierce politics of childhood and its secret world...

Peek Inside the Book

Little girls are cute and small only to adults. To one another they are not cute. They are life sized. Margaret Atwood, Cat's Eye //

Reader's Opinions

I know people who have very specific conditions for books they read -- one who doesn't like any book that portrays adultery in a positive light, another who hates anything in first person. I like to think I don't have any of these, but that's kind of a lie: I hate passive characters. Elaine's the most passive character in...
