

TO WHATEVER END

The thriving kingdom of Halthas was founded by Wielders and Shapers: people who can manipulate either energy or matter. Cecily's noble birth and strong Wielding ability made her a favorite of the king, until she and her husband Daro were caught up in the war that saw him deposed. Although they were hailed as heroes and a new king sits...

Reader's Opinions

Interesting heroic fantasy, that follows a woman who tries to find and rescue her abducted husband. It is following a closed group of characters in one city, so it is not a big, epic book, but rather an was read with...

The blurb for this one sounded great, but it fell flat for me personally. I almost declared it a DNF on a couple of occasions but stuck it out. The storyline sounded original but I think my problem was that I didn't connect to any of the characters. Also, the plot seemed to drag at times. Very slow moving read. I am glad it was offered...
