

HEART OF MINE

To avoid a forced marriage, Laura Gibbs has little choice but to go along with her controlling father's plan to deceive the man she's secretly loved for years. Scared and alone, she lies next to a drugged and sleeping Jake knowing fully well the position she's putting him in. Jake Evans has been burned in the past and has learned the hard way that nobody is interested in him, only his money. So when...

Reader's Opinions

This was a very good short story. I really liked the H's reluctance at first and how even though the H's (verbal) jabs hurt the heroine she wouldn't let it show. I really liked this heroine period... I've been reading some witches lately and this one was like a breath...

Laura has to do something she really doesn't want to do to go along with her father's plan to make Jake think he compromised her when he woke up to see her in his bed. The father burst into the room just at the right moment and Jake could not remember a thing. Jake doesn't know...
