Peek Inside the Book

We're all lonely, we're all hurt, and we're all broken, Jeremy. We are all broken John Goode, 151 Days //

We paused, and they were practically screaming as one: This is it, boys, this is warwhat are we waiting for? Why dont we break the rules already? That isnt a song, its a war cry. They arent just kids anymore; they are warriors. Those kids have it more figured out than we ever...

Reader's Opinions

I have been a fan of the Foster High books, since the first edition of the short story, Maybe With a Chance of Certainty, the one that started everything. I definitely didnt imagine that it would come to this point a story that started with that lovely feeling of first love, has now covered bullying, being outcast, and in the last book...

5 StarsThis series keeps going from strength to strength.The way in which this story was writtenusing multiple POVs to retell several sequences of eventswas epically executed. Not once did I think ugh, again!?! which is often the case when this style of storytelling is...
