Reader's Opinions

I finally finished Mick: The Real Michael Collins by Peter Hart which I began almost exactly one year ago. My attraction to this book was my obvious admiration of Collins and the opportunity to read a new biography (there have been many before). Although I was excited, I was also wary because this book was supposed to take a not-very-flattering...

The best parts of this book were when Michael Collins got angry at meetings and stormed off...on his bicycle. This is actually a very easy to read biography of a fascinating man.
