

A BLIND EYE

Seventeen-year-old Christian Morris decides the only way to save himself from his father's neglect is to run away from home. On his way out of town, he finds a stowaway hiding in his car—Scarlett, who has been kidnapped from London. Blind since birth, Scarlett has developed a sixth sense: she dreams about someone's death before it happens. And now, she has dreamed about her own. Christian's attempt to leave home turns into a race to save Scarlett from death by scientific...
