Reader's Opinions

I received this book from a Goodreads giveaway. Having worked for the past 20+ years with lots of young people who are autistic I was looking forward to reading this and wasn't disappointed. M's story is well written insightful, honest and refreshing to read. I have all ready recommended this for others to read and should be used in...

I absolutely adored M is for Autism, so I was thrilled to see that they had written a sequel! Our female main character and narrator is now in year 8 in England (so age 12 or...
