Reader's Opinions

Suspended in the icy waters of the Atlantic Ocean after the Titanic was pulled beneath the waves, Sophie's life was forever marked, forever suspended between life and the icy, shadowy depths of death. Re-living her brush with death in her dreams, Sophie brings visions of tragedy into her waking world, piercing the veils of the present...

A disclosure: For over twenty years, author Eileen Kernaghan and I have been close colleagues in our local writing community. Kernaghan's young adult novels are those I thoroughly enjoy reading because they are compelling, historical, and laced with a dash of the supernatural. Sophie, in Shadow meets all these criteria for me, as well...
