CURSE

A werewolf story unlike any you've ever seen, CURSE is a story of a family's survival at all costs. Laney Griffith is a man who will do anything to save his son from leukemia, but the cost of treatment has broken him financially. When he pursues an elusive murderer in the wilderness of his small, rural community, in the hopes of securing a substantial bounty, Laney is confronted with something he never could have...

Reader's Opinions

I read curse in the trade format. For this reason I believe that my experience may differ from those that read it issue to issue. The pacing is reminiscent to an episode of The Twilight Zone. We get to know the...

I'm not one typically for werewolf stories but the cover of this intrigued me.certainly glad that I picked it up. this story tells the typical story of a lone in-car to a small remote town picking up and meeting someone once a month in a gruesome and grizzly fashion. Where it differs is in the approach it takes to family and the lengths...
